Exam Time Reminders

Students are reminded that:

- school exams will run from 9:00-11:30 and from 12:30-2:55 daily unless noted on schedule.
- morning homeroom will be held at the regular time BUT the afternoon homeroom will be held at 12:15pm.
- textbooks will be collected by the homeroom teacher before the exam. Students must return their text books at that time. A call home will be made for the textbooks to be brought in to the school.
- book bags, papers and notebooks will not be permitted in the exam room
- cell phones, mp3 players and other electronic devices are not permitted in the exam room.
- Talking is not permitted during the exam.
- If you miss an exam you must bring a doctor's note to explain your absence.

Alert

On Wednesday, May 13, 2009, at approximately 7 p.m., the RNC were contacted to investigate a reported case of a male engaged in inappropriate behavior near the trail behind the school.

Although there was a student group in the school during this time, no students were approached. We feel this is a good opportunity to remind parents to talk to their children about personal safety. Please inform your children to be extra careful when walking, always walk with a buddy, never talk to strangers, and always report suspicious behaviour or activity to a trusted adult.

We feel it is important for parents to discuss safety issues with their children on a regular basis.

Visiting Artists Program

We have recently received three grants (totaling $1500) from the NL Arts Council Visiting Artists program. These grants receive major funding from the Department of Education's Cultural Connections program. We were also delighted to receive a fourth grant ($1000) from the Eastern Educational foundation. Chuck Herriott, Ruth Lawrence and Carmelita McGrath are facilitating several drama and writing workshops for students from three grade levels. The workshops so far this month have been a huge success.
